

Christopher OLSSON at UGC Conference Springboard to Success: Balancing University and Elite Sports

The Springboard to Success: Balancing University and Elite Sports was an UGC Conference organized by School of Public Health, HKU and supported by Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China, Hong Kong Sports Institute, Hong Kong Elite Athletes Association and Centre for Sports and Exercise, HKU.

Christopher OLSSON, Our rugby team member, represented HKUST to join this Conference as a panelist on 24 November 2017. Christopher shared the challenges he faced in balancing academic studies and sports at HKUST at the conference together with the student representatives from other UGC-funded Universities. Professor Sabrina LIN (VPIA) also presented to sign the pledge on promoting a more athlete friendly culture at the university.

Professor Sabrina LIN (VPIA, second from the right) signs the pledge with the representatives from other UGC-funded Universities.

Christopher (third from the right) shares the challenges and provides suggestions on how the University can better help student athletes.

Let's join hands together to support our student athletes!