

HKUST Delegation in World Elite University Football Tournament 2016

The first-ever World Elite University Football Tournament was taken place from 29 July to 7 August 2016 at Tsinghua University, Beijing. Eight world-class Universities including University of Cambridge, University of Oxford, University of Melbourne, University of Southern California, Tsinghua University, Peking University, Renmin University of China and HKUST competed and mingled together during the tournament.

The HKUST Delegation is very excited to meet others elite universities.

The team meets a former HKUST Professor in the welcome dinner!

All team members gain valuable experiences in this international competition.

Team members make new friends from different countries.

Visiting the Great Wall should be an eye-opening experience.

What a wonderful experience for all participating teams!
